

two

Love

Letters

Please read the following two letters and decide which one best describes you, because you really have already written one of them!

Dear God

I have been avoiding Your voice in my conscience until now. It doesn't take a rocket scientist to figure out I have violated your commandments. I have lied, even stolen things. I have lusted, which you say is like committing adultery in my heart. You say that hating someone is like murder, so I'm guilty of that one too. There are times I dishonored my parents, and used your name in vain. Putting you first has not been my desire, because I created my own version of a god. If I stand before you on the Day of Judgment and every secret sin I have ever committed and every idle word I have spoken came out as evidence of my sins against you, I will be guilty and justly deserve your wrath in the Lake of Fire forever. I fear your judgment because I cannot earn my way to heaven!

But you, God, told me that you have provided the only way to save my soul from Hell.

You say in your word, the Bible, that if I will stop trusting in my own way and believe the Good News about Jesus Christ, and call out for mercy, you will save me from what I deserve. So today, I, in faith, believe and confess that you sent Jesus Christ, your Perfect Son, from Heaven to pay for my sins. You said that Jesus, who is God in human flesh, took my place by suffering and dying on the cross and thereby paying the penalty for my sins through His blood. I know that Jesus proved Who He said He was by returning to life, conquering the grave and establishing His power over Death.

Now I know how much you love me!

I now confess and turn from my sins and accept the promises of your Word, the Bible. You are my Lord and Savior! I will no longer live for myself, but present my body, soul and spirit to you all the days of my life. I will read and obey your Word. It is only because of your mercy on my soul that I will live forever in Heaven. Thank you for saving my soul. I am eternally yours.

With all my heart, Your New Child

Dear Satan...

Some claim that you are the god of this world and the father of lies and I can believe that claim. They say you have deceived whole nations and religions and have blinded the minds of people who do not believe. They tell me that it is written that I should fear the wrath that is coming because I am condemned forever and cannot enter Heaven because I have broken God's commandments. But I'm not that bad, even though I have lied from time to time and even may have stolen something in the past. I know I have looked with lust, which God says is committing adultery in my heart. I have hated others, which God says is like murdering someone. I have refused to put God first and even blasphemed His name. Who hasn't? I have coveted other people's things, dishonored my parents, and committed the sin of idolatry by creating my own version of a god. But I enjoy the turn-on of no boundaries.

Yes, my conscience did bother me at times,
But I got over it after a while, thanks to you.

A strange feeling is that I know it was God the creator who gave me life. I admit I have seen some pretty amazing things. It is difficult to see a spectacular sunrise or the brilliance of nature and not recognize how good God is to us, yet I do not want to call him “Lord” God.

I realize that if I were to die the way I am, I will never experience God’s goodness again. They say that God provided a way for me to escape His judgment. They tell me that God’s Son, Jesus Christ, was both God and man, and was perfect, and that He paid the penalty for my sins. They said that He even rose out of the grave, destroying the power of death. But I still refuse to repent and turn away from my sins! On the Day of Judgment, when I am cast into the Lake of Fire, I will have no one to blame but myself! It is not God’s will that I perish forever. Satan, you are my spiritual father and I will continue to serve you and do your will. This is because I love the Darkness and hate the Light. If I do not come to my senses, I will be eternally lost. Yours Forever.

So, which letter is yours?

It's Decision Time!

The Bible, God's Word, says whoever (that's you) calls out to God for mercy and forgiveness will be saved from eternal punishment and becomes a child of God.

God does this by His spirit calling you to acknowledge your sinfulness and the lost condition of your soul.

If God is doing that right now, use the "Dear God" letter to help you call out to Him and believe (accept) His promises from the Bible.

The "Dear God, Dear Satan prayers are a compilation of phrases from the Bible, God's Word, to bring you to the place of saving your soul.